

Consider ASD student's access and participation in the present learning community. Next, project this out to age 21. What will be the largest obstacles to independence, productivity and social connectedness? Obstacles of greatest impact should be addressed first.

